From: Campus Safety Magazine
To: lwaddle@bakersfieldpd.us
Subject: It"s Mental Health Awareness Month - Test Your Knowledge
Date: Thursday, May 16, 2019 7:02:05 AM

Trouble viewing this email? View it here.

CS Logo

May 16, 2019

It's Mental Health Awareness Month -- Take This Quick Quiz to Test Your Knowledge

It's Mental Health Awareness Month -- Take This Quick Quiz to Test Your Knowledge

Since 1949, May has been recognized as Mental Health Awareness Month. How much do you know about mental health in America?

Tell Us About Your Emergency Notification Systems

If you are a healthcare, K-12 or higher ed public safety, emergency management or security pro and you complete our emergency notification survey, you could win $50!

Facial-recognition Technology Banned in San Francisco

San Francisco is the first city in the United States to prohibit its government from using facial-recognition technology.

Advertisement

Advertisement

Advertisement

Advertisement

Douglas County to Put $10 Million Toward School Safety After STEM Shooting

Douglas County commissioners unanimously voted Monday night to redirect the money using left over property tax revenue from 2018.

Severe Weather: More Than Just a Seasonal Threat

Campus weather preparedness plans, outreach and training must take into account the fact that tornadoes, as well as other weather hazards, can happen at any time.

See What's Happening at This Summer's Campus Safety Conferences

Here are some highlights from CSC 2019.

CSHQ: Beyond Lockdown: Stop the Bleed for Educators

RESOURCE

Understanding Your Options: ID Card Printing for Higher Education

This Executive Brief contains a guided evaluation of ID card printing options to simplify your choice.

WEBCAST

Preparing for the Unthinkable: An Active Shooting in a School

This presentation will address the range of things that can be done to prevent an active shooter event and respond to one that occurs.

Join Us! Attend This Summer's Campus Safety Conferences

This email was sent to lwaddle@bakersfieldpd.us by Campus Safety
111 Speen St Framingham, MA 01701

Manage your email subscriptions
Unsubscribe from ALL